

Our Sustainability Principle

LaQuinta by Wyndham Istanbul, regarding sustainability, undertakes to fulfill the obligations of the Turkey Sustainable Tourism Program and continuously improve the sustainable management system to increase sustainability performance. Due to the sector's status, environmental, social, technological, economic, and cultural risks, changes, and updates originating from legislation, our Turkey Sustainable Tourism Program is constantly reviewed. If necessary, the system and policies are updated.

We thank you for your support in the sustainability activities we have carried out in our facility.
